COPYRIGHT TRANSFER

By submitting a manuscript to the editor or publisher you are deemed to have granted permission to publish the manuscript. To protect the ownership and rights and to protect original authors from misappropriation of their published work, we require that you sign and return this copyright transfer form.

1. The authors warrant that all material submitted for publication is their own original work and has not been previously published in any form or language (except in other Horizon or Caister publications) and that he or she has the full right to enter into this agreement.
2. The authors warrant that their contribution contains no matter which is libelous, or a violation or infringement of any copyright or civil right of any party.
3. The authors warrant that none of the figures or tables have been previously published in any form.
4. The authors agree that their names may be used in the promotional material for the volume.
5. The authors grant and convey to the publisher full and exclusive rights available to the owner of a copyright for any present, revised, and future editions, in all languages throughout the world. These rights shall include, exclusively and without limitation, the copyright; the right to publish and sell including electronic, audio-visual, and all other forms; the right to translate, publish, and sell all rights of any nature whatsoever; the right to license or authorize others to do the aforementioned. (For US government employees to the extent transferable.)
6. This Copyright Transfer form should be signed by the corresponding author on behalf of all authors. All authors should be aware of, and in agreement with, its content.
